{ EASTER SUNDAY }

WILL YOU BE READY FOR OUR EASTER VISITORS?

Why do “Under-churched” people stay away?

Their stories differ—but some people may have valid personal reasons for not attending church.

- Perhaps a past trauma haunts them—even trauma suffered in church or at the hands of other Christians.
- Some “under-churched” may be burned out from serving.
- Some may have attended a church that was more social than Christ’s church.
- Some may be reeling from a personal tragedy and find church attendance too painful.
- They may view themselves as religious and feel they don’t need a church.
- Some are outcasts and may not have been accepted at a particular church.
- Some people are skeptics and are unwilling to try things they aren’t sure about.

Our shared goal is to encourage these ONCE-OR-TWICE-A-YEAR-CHURCHGOERS to become FULL-TIME, 365-DAYS-A-YEAR followers of Jesus—and to commit their lives to HIM!
